A REPORT ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF ECO-FRIENDLY LORD VINAYAKA IDOLS.

Like every year, this year also the DIET management distributed lord Vinayaka idols to the school children as well as to the local people in their adopted villages Akkireddypalem, and Maredupudi on the eve of Vinayaka Chaturthi.

The diet management distributed these idols to local people with a view to create awareness and importance of using mud idols which are eco-friendly and would not cause any environment pollution. If colored idols are used for worship, they would cause a lot of water pollution after getting them immersed in the water bodies. So, considering the primary responsibility of everyone in protecting environment as far as possible, the diet management took an initiative in distributing these mud idols to some extent. In this distribution program, the local sarpanch Suri Apparao, who participated and looked after entire program done in a smooth manner. For this distribution program, nearly 60 DIET student volunteers enthusiastically volunteered this entire program and nearly 600 idols were distributed.

After this distribution programme, the college Principal Dr. Ch Narasinh, HOD's of all departments and Faculty members appreciated the efforts of their college student volunteers.

Report on World Environment Day

The major goal of celebrating environmental day every year on June 5th is to raise awareness of the value of the resources on our planet and the need to protect them. Every year on 5th June, World Environment Day is observed globally. The day helps to raise awareness about the environment and the damage that human activities do to it. The UN Assembly designated June 5 as World Environment Day (WED) in 1972. It was done to create an awareness of the kind of environment we are living in and the need to conserve and preserve it for the present and the future. 'Only One Earth' was the slogan for the first celebration of the World Environment Day in 1974, and from then on, the commemoration of the World Environment Day has become a platform to create consciousness on the environmental issues we are facing on a global scale. It also turned out to be a chance for everyone to rethink the ways in which they are exploiting the environment we are a part of.

In this connection the local Dadi Institute celebrated world Environmental Day in their campus by planting fruit bearing trees to create awareness and the importance of environment to the students. In this programme, The institute Vice-principal Dr R.Vaikunta Rao, Dean Admin, Dean academician, Head of departments, Faculty members and NSS student volunteers participated and planted several fruit bearing sapling like guava, mango, lemon, custard apple etc in their campus. Later on vice-principal addressed the gathering and explained the importance of environment and why should we protect environment, and if not what losses the next generations would face. Finally faculty members and students volunteer shared their views about the importance of environment and how much need is there to protect it for four next generation people.
