A Report on National Human Rights Day

Anakapalle,

Dt : 10th December 2022

The 2022 Theme of Human Rights Day is Dignity, Freedom, and Justice for All. It commemorates the day in 1948 the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

In view of National Human Rights Day, the local Dadi Institute of Engineering & Technology conducted a programme on National Human Rights Day, (which is being observed on December 10 every year globally), in their campus with a great deal in order to create awareness about human rights and their significance to the students. The main aim behind celebrating this day is to improve the physical, social, cultural, and spiritual well-being and welfare of the vulnerable group of people globally.

Human rights have not been given by any nation to its citizens but they are inherent to every human being. Everyone is entitled to these human rights without any discrimination. Human rights include the right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, the right to work and education, Freedom from discrimination, Right to equality between men and women, Right to life, Freedom from torture, Freedom from slavery, Right to liberty and security of person, Right to be treated with humanity in detention, Freedom of movement.

The date was chosen to honour the United Nations General Assembly's adoption and proclamation, on 10 December 1948, of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), the first global enunciation of human rights and one of the first major achievements of the new United Nations. The formal establishment of Human Rights Day occurred at the 317th Plenary Meeting of the General Assembly on 4 December 1950, when the General Assembly declared resolution 423(V), inviting all member states and any other interested organizations to celebrate the day as they saw fit

The day is normally marked both by high-level political conferences and meetings and by cultural events and exhibitions dealing with human rights issues. Besides, it is traditionally on 10 December that the five-yearly United Nations Prize in the Field of Human Rights and Nobel Peace Prize are awarded. Many governmental and non-governmental organizations active in the human rights field also schedule special events to commemorate the day, as do many civil and social-cause organisations.

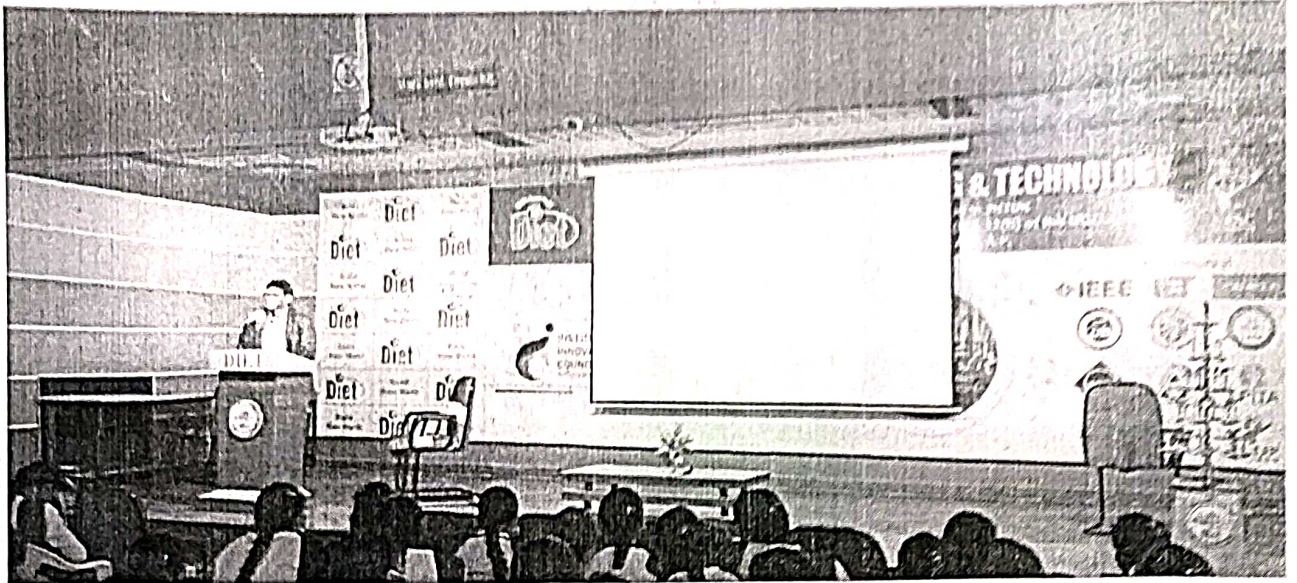

In this programme Dadi institute Principal Dr. Challa Narasimham who addressed the student gathering to educate them about the human rights importance to every citizen of the world to protect and safeguard themselves from negative social elements and to lead a happy life with complete freedom. He said that every citizen of every country should be aware of these rights and when these rights are violated anywhere people should respond and lodge a complaint in the human rights commission which is originated to protect human rights to sustain their authenticity. He explained several examples of how human rights get violated and how to protect them with volunteered efforts. To this programme the NSS convenor A. Kiran Kumar, Faculty members and students were present.

Principal Dr. Challa Narasimham addressed the student gathering and educate them about the human rights importance.
