Observations:

- Students appreciate the curriculum but see room for further alignment with their expectations
- The current credit-hour distribution is mostly satisfactory but may benefit from minor adjustments to address diverse student needs
- Most of the students expressed the curriculum is suitable for their current job
- Students appreciated the offerings but may benefit from increased diversity or accessibility in co-curricular activities.

Action-Taken Report with timeline:

Based on these observations, the following actions are recommended for IQAC to enhance the educational environment

- 1) Adjust curriculum to align with current trends and practical applications as requested by the student will be implemented from next academic year.
- 2) Conduct workshops for teachers to incorporate varied examples and industry relevant case studies which are continuously ongoing.
- 3) Organize diverse workshops and events to provide additional learning and engagement opportunities, will be implemented from next academic year.
