To commemorate the 134th birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the NSS Unit of Dadi Institute of Engineering and Technology organized a thoughtful and inspiring celebration on campus. The program was conducted with great reverence and served as a platform to pay homage to one of India's greatest social reformers, jurists, and the principal architect of the Indian Constitution. The event commenced with a garlanding ceremony led by our respected Principal, Dr. R. Vaikunta Rao, who paid floral tribute to Dr. Ambedkar's portrait, symbolizing the institute's deep respect for his legacy. This act of honor set a solemn and respectful tone for the rest of the event. Dr. Ambedkar's tireless fight for social justice, equality, and education continues to inspire generations, and the celebration aimed to remember and reflect on his monumental contributions to the nation.

Solemn Garland Ceremony by Principal in Honor of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

The event commenced with a floral tribute to the portrait of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, offered by the dignitaries including Principal Dr. R. Vaikunta Rao, Vice-Principal, and NSS Programme Officer Mr. K. Mohan Rao. Faculty members, staff, and a large number of NSS volunteers were present, gathering with great reverence to honor the legacy of Babasaheb. The ceremony created an atmosphere of respect and unity, as students and staff alike reflected on the values of justice, equality, and education that Dr. Ambedkar stood for.

Following the tribute, Principal Dr. R. Vaikunta Rao addressed the gathering, delivering an inspiring message that highlighted the importance of Dr. Ambedkar's contributions to the nation and the relevance of his ideals in today's society.

In his keynote address, Dr. R. Vaikunta Rao, Principal of DIET, emphasized the importance of Ambedkar's philosophy in today's educational and social context. He reminded students about the significance of constitutional rights and duties, encouraging them to pursue knowledge with integrity and to stand against all forms of inequality and injustice.

The Vice-Principal also shared insightful reflections on the remarkable life journey of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. He spoke about how Dr. Ambedkar, despite being born into a socially marginalized community and facing severe discrimination from an early age, rose to become one of the most influential figures in Indian history. His perseverance in the face of adversity, unwavering commitment to education, and relentless pursuit of justice made him a true icon of social reform.

Mr. K. Mohan Rao, NSS Programme Officer, appreciated the involvement of the volunteers and emphasized their role as changemakers in society. He encouraged students to carry forward Dr. Ambedkar's legacy through acts of service, inclusion, and leadership. Volunteers also came forward to share their thoughts, speeches, and quotes inspired by Babasaheb's ideals, making the event more participatory and enriching.

During the program, a few NSS volunteers and students took the opportunity to share their thoughts on the life and contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. Each speaker highlighted different facets of his legacy—ranging from his relentless fight against caste discrimination to his vision of an inclusive society empowered by education and equal opportunity.

One student spoke about how Dr. Ambedkar's emphasis on education as the greatest tool for empowerment continues to motivate youth to pursue knowledge fearlessly. Another reflected on his drafting of the Indian Constitution and how it laid the foundation for a democratic and just India. Others mentioned his courage in challenging deeply rooted social inequalities and his efforts to bring about structural change in Indian society.

Their words were filled with respect, admiration, and a deep sense of responsibility. The reflections from the students not only honored Dr. Ambedkar's memory but also served as a personal reminder to all present that each individual has the power to create positive change, just as Babasaheb did through his life's work.

The 134th birth anniversary of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar was not only a respectful tribute but also an inspiring reminder of our duty to uphold constitutional values. With active participation from the Principal, Vice-Principal, faculty, and NSS volunteers, the event was both meaningful and impactful. It reflected the NSS Unit of DIET's ongoing commitment to nurturing socially responsible and aware citizens.
