The Institute-Level Elocution Competition on the topic "Importance of Communication Skills for Academic Success" was successfully conducted on April 23, 2024. Organized by the KIM Committee in association with the DIET CSI Student Chapter, the event aimed to foster public speaking skills among participants and highlight the significance of effective communication in academic pursuits.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various disciplines, showcasing their eloquence and persuasive abilities. Participants eloquently expressed their views on the importance of communication skills, emphasizing its role in enhancing academic performance and career prospects.

Judges, comprising faculty members and evaluated participants based on criteria such as content relevance, delivery, and overall presentation. The event provided a platform for students to hone their oratory skills, fostering self-confidence and critical thinking.

Special gifts were awarded to the winners, including:

First Place: Solman I-CSM-A

Second Place: A.Sanjana I-CSE A

Third Place: Harika I-CSE A

Attendees, including faculty, students, were impressed by the articulate speeches and insightful perspectives shared during the competition. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to all participants, organizers, and supporters for their contribution to making the event a resounding success.

Overall, the Institute-Level Elocution Competition served as a testament to the commitment of KIM Committee and DIET CSI Student Chapter in promoting academic excellence and effective communication skills among students.
