Interactive session on career in Banking and Digital Banking Reforms in India

The Career Guidance cell of DIET organized an Interactive session with Sri RVG Kulkarni, senior Vice-President HDFC bank to orient the students about the career prospects in the banking sector for the graduates and also to educate about the digital reforms in the banking sector on 26th September, 2019.

Sri Kulkarni in his talk conveyed that the current generation is looking at banking sector as their career option for various reasons. He opined that the technological advancement in the banking sector has been one of the prime factors for the technocrats to look at banking as career option.

Sri Kulkarni talked about the digital banking influence on customers, types of assets in banking sector and the loans offered by the banks. He also highlighted the rural banking facilities to the students as many of the students are from the rural backdrop and asked them to educate their parents to benefit from the schemes designed especially for the farmers..

He gave the necessary inputs for the students on how to aspire and prepare for various competitive examinations like CIVIL services, banking sector exams and also gave guidance on cracking GRE, TOFEL to get into reputed foreign universities for higher education.
