Cambridge English BEC B1 Examination at DIET

Cambridge English BEC B1 Examination was successfully conducted for 100 students of II & III year B.Tech students in Dadi Institute of Engineering & Technology on 8th and 9th March, 2017. The students thanked the management and the principal for providing such opportunity for them.

Students undergoing Speaking Skills Test

As BEC B1(Preliminary) examination is not only useful for immigration but also helpful for procurement of job in multinational companies, all the students of DIET appreciated the Cambridge Authorities.

The Secretary & Correspondent of the college, Mr.Dadi Ratnakar emphasized that communication skills plays a vital role in the job selection process. He informed the students that these examinations help the students to master English Language Skills.

Examiners from Cambridge ESOL are evaluating the vocabulary of the students

The Principal, Dr. M.Venugopala Rao expressed his happiness as DIET is officially declared as an authorized centre for Cambridge ESOL Examinations. Mrs. Babita Jain congratulated the students for their performance and also appreciated the faculty members for their efforts.

The students were tested on all the skills like listening, speaking, reading and writing. The examiners from Cambridge ESOL applauded some of the students for their best performance.

Prof.K.Amarendra, Vice Principal of the college thanked Mr.Varun who shouldered the work and completed it successfully.

Prof. K.Amarendra, Vice Principal of the College along with the faculty members of DIET and Cambridge ESOL Team
